SAN DIEGO CITY ATTORNEY'S OFFICE CLOSED FOR A SECOND DAY, OCTOBER 28

The San Diego City Attorney's Office will be closed for a second day, tomorrow, Tuesday, October 28th. San Diego City Attorney Casey Gwinn made the decision in coordination with San Diego Mayor Dick Murphy's announcement that all non-essential City Offices will be shutdown for a second day, and the fact that the San Diego Superior Court will also be closed tomorrow due to the fire crisis. The Office of the San Diego City Attorney employs more than 300 people: attorneys, investigators and support staff.
